

NAVARRA PAINTS NEW YORK GARNACHA RED

The Kingdom of NAVARRA, Spain has a storied history.

Vineyards have been present since Roman times, and winemaking gained renown during the height of the Pilgrimage to Santiago. In modern times Hemingway immortalized Navarra in his writings, and thousands take part each year in the running of the bulls in San Fermin.

The most compelling way to experience Navarra today is through wine and food.

THE FLAVORS OF NAVARRA Spain

THE PERFECT BLEND OF WINE, FOOD & TRADITION

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7TH 2008

The W Union Square Hotel
201 Park Ave South · New York City
6:30 PM · Great Room

Dinner will be prepared by Navarran chef
Teresa Gil of Restaurante Don Pablo of Pamplona www.restaurantedonpablo.com

Price | $125 - AIWF Members
$150 - Non-members

Please click here to purchase tickets

Questions • AIWF Office (718) 522-6688 • aiwf@beardallis.com

With the kind support of the TRADE COMMISSION of Spain

